to accomplish something in life, who tries to do something in good - the way that things come and turn and directions that we would never dream of. Satan is a real force and <sup>watching</sup> Satan is constantly/wherever anything good is done to try to get a hold and twist it and pervert it, to try to introduce that which is harmful. Satan is the prince of this world. He goes about as a roaring lion, but he also goes about as an angel of light. His wiles are absolutely impenetrable to our mind. But thank God if we submit ourselves to God then we can resist the devil and we know that then, in God's strength, we can overcome him. But there has never been a human organization, there has never been a human movement, there has never been a great human effort that has gone on very long without Satan in some way getting in and starting to cause trouble. How wonderful it is in the passage we looked at a couple of days ago to read that after the return of Christ, Satan will be bound for a thousand years so that he can deceive the nations no more. And we will have a thousand years of with no interference from Satan. Then he must be loosed for a little season but it is only a little season, after which he will be cast into the lake of fire permanently. That does not mean that the end of the thousand years is the end of the period of bliss and happiness that we are to have. We believe in the millennium. We believe in the thousand years, but we also believe in the kingdom of Christ that cannot be destroyed. Satan will try to destroy it after the thousand years, but he will not succeed. What happens after that the Bible has not told us. Do we continue on this earth after that - on this earth purified and cleansed, made into a new earth? Do we continue on it or are we taken off to some other planet, or do we live in some other sort of existence? The Bible does not tell us. We know though that for a thousand years Satan will be bound before he is loosed for a little season and cast into the lake of fire. But today Satan is here. Satan is going about as a
