

dressed like hippies. You would want to look good for him. Someone more important than the President of the U.S. is here. If we have faith, we endure as seeing Him who is invisible. Are you so dressed, are you so carrying on your life, are you so doing your activities as to please Him? Do you let little grudges, little irritations cause you to act in a way that you would not if you were in the presence of the mighty King? Do you do things -- A good example is the class prayer meetings. How many of you faithfully attend all the ~~class~~ class prayer meetings? Do you let other things get in the way of meeting with your class mates for prayer? Do you endure as seeing Him that is invisible? Let us examine ourselves whether/^{we}bein the faith. Let us do this at the beginning of the~~ye~~ year. Let us do it at the ~~g~~ beginning of each month. Let us do it at the beginning of each week. Let us constantly examine ourselves, not whether we are doing just right in this and just wrong in that and making a slip in' that. Nor to be nervous and upset as to whether we are meeting a standard no == but whether we are conscious every minute of the presence of the mighty God, of His constantly watching us, interested in us, leading us, blessing us, desiring us to study His Word and know what it means, looking on us as little children gradually learning to toddle, to walk, to struggle forward, to do His will and rejoicing in everything good that He sees in us and weeping over our failures.

Examine yourself whether you are always conscious of ~~seeing~~ seeing Him who is invisible. Examine yourselves whether ye be in the faith.
