

5)

Judge not according to appearance but judge righteous judgment. Men look ⁵ at great buildings, fine exteriors. They see tht a man has a pleasing appearance, that he speaks well, that he has many degrees. They proceed them to follow him. The world at large does not think things through. It does not look for facts. Hitler led the German nation in a direction tht seemed ~~p~~ to promise wonderful things. In 1931 I was in Germany and things look absolutely hopeless. The ^{grt.} depression that hit the U.S.A., hit Germany 3 yrs earlier. Germany was a land that seemed headed for bankrupsy and destruction. Hitler came with his message of defiance, with his marvellous power of oratory he gathered people around him. He presented a few truths mixed with a great many errors, but presented in a way that galvanized people. The nation that had seemed despondent and about to disappear soon became a nation of == in which everyone was industriously working. There was no unemployment. Things seemed to be heading for a grt. fut. for everyone. Yet those who really saw what Hitler's objectives were, and what his ultimate purposes were knew that this was all a false prosperity. They knew that the end of what he was doing could not but be destruction and misery. because he was aiming for a false objective. The nation had to learn this lesson at terrible cost with thousands of its young men killed, with millions of dollars worth of property destroyed, a third of the nation turned over to communist tyranny and remaining so until this day. Man looks on the outside appearance but God looks at the heart. ✂ Jesus said Don't judge according to appearance, judge righteous judgments. Look at the true situation. We are not interested here in training people to give people superficial interpretations and to make a great splash with them and to lead God's people astray.