

to learn how to make decisions and to make them for your purposes, we can know then that whatever comes is your purposes and accomplishes what you desire, and we can be content with it. So our Father we pray that Jesus Christ may indeed be central to each one of us, and our lives may accomplish the utmost for Him. In our Saviour's Name. Amen.