

the OT^e predictions, so those who live ~~at~~ in the time of these terrible (you surely love that word) events at the end of the age are to be able to see how Scripture is being fulfilled, and thus to have a strong impetus to turn to the Lord and receive His free grace. There is much we cannot expect to understand before ~~xxxxx~~ the rapture of the church. It will be of great benefit to people who live when it comes, though of far less benefit to us. (we might be here) Just as many of the predictions of the coming of Christ could not be understood before His coming, but were valuable indications of the fact that He was truly ~~God~~ God's Son when He came.
