to try to get back on to a system where the government would not be spending more than it was getting and where things would continue to be done by private organizations which have made America great, instead of m by government monopoly which has made most of the world suffer./We have brough a and which deaaying ? degeneration in most countries. He went in thinking he would accomplish a great deal in his second term. They had direction. Every political party in American history has spied on every other political party., and tried to determine what they were trying to do. But in this case some underling without orders from the top, in his enthusiasm went beyond what he was to do, and broke into the Democratic Headquarters. He did not seal anything, he did not take anything. Two days before they had found a bug in the Republican Headquarters in New York City which some Democrat had put there. But the people who have been brainwashed in college, are most have of the journalistic positions in our country today, and the result is you can't listen to the TV anytime but you hear about the Watergate scandal.
And the Watergate scandal means everything is bad about Nixon, everything he has done -   In my opinion there is not a single thing that has been alledged about him that has b not been done to at least as twice as great was not an extent by Lyndon Johnson, and by most every other President, The way they talk about the "Watergate scandal"; the way they talk about Nixon, it is the attack of the these people who have been brainwashed this way to destroy the American system. Now I am not urging you to go out and fight for the American system. We are a little tiny thing compared with this influence which has been spredding in our Universities for over 50 years. I struck it when I first whent to college, and I was shocked by it. I found two or three professros there who were brainwashing students in the direction of just hating everything that has made America great. But when I see it in our journalists today, when I see it their prejudiced and lying attacks they are constantly making demanding?that every single word a man has said to know in private talking to his private associates in order to pick out anything
