

will ~~the~~ it be ~~said ther-~~ said that here is a particular situation of crisis where the change in the matters of order may be ~~worth--~~ well worthwhile in view of the benefit of giving sound teaching ~~and-~~ to these people and training them to carry ~~on th--~~ on the work on their own. This is a matter for you and the Board to decide. It is very difficult for one who is not in the situation to make a decision and I am glad that the ~~response-iss~~ responsibility does not rest upon me for having made the decision.

I am sure that the people who received the fine Christian teaching that you gave will ~~bless~~ bless you through all eternity for it, and will always be grateful that the decision was made as it was. What the results may be ~~in~~ ^{fifty} 50 years, if our Lord carries, I am not in a position to judge, but in the immediate situation I ~~know~~ ^{am sure} that they have every reason to be thankful ~~and-~~ for what you did.

In the case of the Nazarene Church ^{of in Minnesota,} ~~at which you have been speaking~~ the ~~sitat-~~ situation is a little different, because we do not have the same responsibility ~~th~~ toward them that we have toward the fruits of the work of the Independent Board. If they invite you to come, ~~ask you-~~ and to conduct these services, I would feel that ~~the~~ the responsibility was on their hands, rather than in any way on ours or on yours. I would think it, however, very wise to be sure that it is understood to be strictly on a temporary basis, and as a ~~maa~~ matter of specific invitation for each ~~at~~ time. Even if the invitation should be continued and accepted a good many times, it should never be allowed to be thought of as ~~per~~ a permanent arrangement.

① might also be good to keep urging that an office of the church be found
 ② to conduct at least the routine parts of the service, so as to keep it evident
 ③ that ~~the~~ the vital thing is that each of us realize that he alone is responsible to ④ that ~~ultimate~~ responsibility lies in their hands rather than in yours.
 ⑤ advance the Kingdom of Christ most ^{and: not only} for what will ~~accomplish~~ accomplish- accomplish
