

of Antiochus Epiphanes and gives quite a bit of place to it, and it was mighty important in those days to have this book fulfilled exactly that function of encouragement to those people, but it was a book written 400 years before , but then ~~it~~ he goes on and ~~tes~~ tells us about the fourth kingdom, about the continuation of the Roman civilization and about the coming of Anti-Christ that is yet future and about the establishment of the kingdom of Christ, which is to come . ~~x~~ And so it is wonderful how God ~~α~~ has given us this fulfilled prophecy written . It's confusing if ~~k~~ you try to make it history written after the event. You have to confuse the third and fourth or imagine a kingdom that never existed , but take it as it sounds and you have a marvelous picture that God gave to Daniel of these kingdoms ahead ~~and~~ of these visions of the situation reaching to our own day and a glimpse of what is ahead for us , These days, when so much of the world is trembling in fear and uncertainty of what is ahead , how wonderful it is that we have a book which is represents the mind of the creator of the universe, and in this book he has given us this progressive progression, giving us a hint of this and a ~~hing hing~~ hint of that and a little more evidence as we go through it , and given us these assurances that God is sovereign, is in control . That man in his sin has brought evil and injustice and misery upon this earth and will ~~w~~ continue to do so as long as sin reigns. If we can get out of this hold that sin has upon us , by turning to Christ who died that we might be saved through Him, that we can receive Him ~~α~~ into our hearts and be saved through Him, and then we can look forward to the future not with fear , ~~now~~ not with uncertainty, but with assurance , knowing that God's will is going to prevail , that He is going to take all of the
