

but say it to yourself and then talk that way.

Why do I make him say that crazy poem over and over.

He got out and got a church, a little church and a few people thought his preaching was wonderful, that the topic of his sermons was thoroughly worked out but to many people who visited that church, most of them came once, talked about mush in his mouth they didn't feel like coming back. And then he decided when the church didn't grow that he wasn't cut out to be a minister, and he would take work on the side and that would be so he got a job at a Christian college and he went there and started teaching at the h C Christian college, and after he had been there about four years, they found that his elective work had only one or two students. These students were (7 1/2) and the result was that the college felt that they couldn't afford to hire him

~~and if you need him today~~ today out in Arizona somewhere he will tell and if you meet him but I believe that ~~if~~ if he had taken the teaching I gave him and had stuck to it and been willing to take

I ~~do~~ believe that he would have made such a success in the church that; he would have decided that that was what the Lord had called him to and built a large church
