

...well now that is a survey of the main aspects of our curriculum

Principally, I'd like to say again, we have worked out the curriculum in order to give you the best training we are capable of giving.

More stress on this and more stress on that and if we recognize that fact (9 1/2) learn to fit the documents together and present it so the people get what God wants them to have

How to speak effectively, how to make sermons that are homiletically not because there's some homiletic pattern but because if you have (10)

Look at the Bible, look at the passage in Holy Scripture. Matthew tells us about how God sent his son the king to be the, to satisfy the longing of the Jews for their king.

They were oppressed. You need a king. You want a king of your own. Well here he is. But when you get to know him you'll see how far you've fallen (11 1/4)
