

we'll do our best to short cut, to cut you over as fast as we can, to get over the necessary ground, and we hope you can finish~~e~~ in three years but we would rather have a man trained to accomplish something for the Lord than to have a man to go out with a degree and nothing to show for it. We stand for solid training, we stand for vital spiritual life. We must emphasize that, we ~~must~~ <sup>hope to</sup> stress it. We have in past years, and we want your prayers

Well, as I told you we stand for the pre-millennial return of Christ. We believe in that, we don't make it our major thesis, we don't make (8)

the fundamental essentials
of the Word of God

You know, at Westminster, while I was there, I saw the development of an attitude. Here was the faculty at Westminster. Well, Dr. Fitz Wilson, and Dr. Machen, were two of the greatest scholars in the world. And the students got the idea that all of us were (8 1/2)

Here were 8 professors, we were the greatest scholars in one place in the world. And we all came together and exactly agreed on everything was their idea.

That was the attitude, these men are such a fine group, we want (8 3/4)

I used to be in a faculty meeting there, we'd get a letter where does the seminary stand on this doctrine? Well, we invited them to answer exactly what we believed, and on the minor things there were different views on the minor matters, but when we stood absolutely one on all things of theology. When you find a student who wants all faculty to stand
