

in it. God helps those who realize their own helplessness.

Is God your shepherd? You need a shepherd as no one of you may have any hope of continued prosperity or enduring health or permanent happiness through your own actions. You need a shepherd and the only shepherd who is able and willing to give the guidance and protection that is so sorely needed is the Lord, Himself. The Lord offers to be the shepherd to those of us born again through the blood of Christ. Have you accepted Him? He promises to keep that which is committed to Him. Have you committed everything to Him? What a wonderful promise this is. How superior to anything that human speculation could possibly evolve is the inspired translation of God's own Word - "The Lord is my shepherd".
