When we started our school we heard that the ~~Bib~~ Biblical Seminary in N.Y. which had now changed its name to N.Y. Theological Seminary desired to sell its library. They were going to auction it. So Dr. Murray and I went up to see its president. We found he was a professor in Union Seminary and was also acting as president there, and he had no idea who we were. We were simply from a new school that wanted to be considered as possibly making a bid on his library. He told us how the school had gone, about the gradual change. He said, You know they have 3000 alumni of this school, and every one of them is spiritually loyal to us. He said in Union Seminary we don't have two who are as loyal as every one of the 3000! But the school was being closed down, and becoming just a center for urban work in N.Y. City.

Fortunately the library did not stand there unused. ~~We~~ They got the money we've been paying through these years for it to use for their modernist purposes, but we got the library that they had built up through 50 years, many of which books would be very difficult to find now.

But how Satan has been working and is working, and I think relativism is one of the big causes. But there is another factor that is rather unique. This factor is the transfer of evangelical ardour. I don't think this is usually recognized. When I was in college I went to a YMCA conference at ~~a~~ in California. A conference which had a general Christian atmosphere, but there wasn't any definite ~~existence~~ emphasis on Scriptural doctrine. But there was a man there giving messages and preaching who was filled with ardour and enthusiasm. As he presented his ideas for transforming the world, for building the kingdom of God on earth (and incidentally denied Christian doctrines here and there as he
