One hundred years ago most of the Christanns of the U.S. were in 5 or 6 large denominations. These denominations might differ on secondary points, but they sa agreed that this Bible was the Word of God. Shypy agreed that no one could be saved except through the death of the Lord Jesus Christ. They agreed on the denity of Christ. These great fundamental teachings were taught in all of these major denominations from coast to coast, and they would often unite "for evangelistic ampaigns min various and and areas, and bring sinner and bring sinner and bring sinner and bring sinner and the state of the Today just Native Intellectual Ability about every one of those organizations that 100 years ago was a great center for the spread of God's Word is shot through and Ability to Express Himself in Writing through with unbelief, so that in leadership a far greater dinumberilide Integrity are denying the Word of God than are supporting it. The results is a large in the results is a large in the second is that the hungry sheep look up and are not fed. Many a fine family of earnest Christians cannot understand why their children have drifted away from the church, because the change has come all so gradually that they have not sensed what has happened.
