

particularly this ~~was~~ one particular sentence which was one that would have alienated a great many very earnest Christians. He was --- well, he finally agreed to go slow on it, on that particular thing. I did not know how much it would be able to accomplish. But I have been pleased to see that it has proceeded to get very good scholars on particular areas and now has sent to all those who are to come to this meeting which begins tomorrow in Chicago, they have sent a book of mimeographed sheets which has a dozen subjects relating to areas on the question of inspiration which have been excellently handled as to the precise meaning of it, as to difficulties ----- . It's a long thing. I haven't read all of it by any means yet. But in touching it at many points I am very pleased and they are going to have a meeting not at which they will read all these papers. You are supposed to read the papers in advance. Attendance is by invitation but they are to ~~have~~ hoping to have several hundred there, but they sent this to all who are to come and there they are to have meetings at which the writer of the paper will give a 20 min. resume and then the paper will be discussed. They are thus to seek improvements in these papers and to eventually print it as a book.

Several of the members of our faculty are expecting to go. They don't have to go until tomorrow because the meeting does not start until tomorrow afternoon. But since they have to start at 9 in the morning, I'm going to have to go within the next few minutes. The advisory board meets from 9 to 12. So I have to be on the plane at 1:00 o'clock. But I wish you would pray for this meeting. Because as I talked to this man on the phone he named a seminary which is considered very sound and very strong in one particular direction, and he named another seminary which is con-