

Sept. 4, 1979

Opening Convocation

- 1 Eph. 4:7-16
Recognition of our own sinfulness and how to deal with it
- 2 Eph. 4:8-13 and our service
The various gifts God has given us for service
- 3 Fellow who had gift for evangelism but spent his time and effort trying to become a first class Semetic scholar
Find out what your gift is
Don't concentrate on one area too soon
Training is fundamental
- 4 Emphasis of BS^T on the languages of Scripture
Arranging one's schedule to the best advantage
- 5 Difficulty of making a translation
Man who phoned from Minnesota to know exact meaning of a word
- 6 Our primary emphases
Student at another seminary thankful for emphasis on the languages he learned at BTS
- 7 McCartney's sermon: 'Thou shalt say unto Him, No.'
Stress on effective public speaking=
- 8 Use of the tape recorder
AAM's Homiletics teacher in seminary. His belated help
Student who conducted music and gave out the number indistinctly
- 9 Value of our Homiletics Seminary
- 10 Woman who lisped and found it hard to work 'Sister Suzie is sewing shirts for soldiers' into a conversation