

Now Im happy to be able to present -- I'm not going to present-- but I'll mention that he will be presented, a good example of what we try to do here. It's a great ~~to~~ joy that he is one of our own alumni and he is going to be our speaker tonight. I hear that no matter who he gets to speak in his pulpit, he never gets as many people out as when he speaks there himself. I think that is a good testimony to the kind of training we are trying to give here as well as the grace which God has given to him.

So we greet you all in the Lord's Name, and pray that -- pray for each of you that God will enable you to know Jesus Christ as you have. If you have never known him as your Saviour, may you come to know Him now. If you know as your Saviour may you come to know Him better now. And may you come to follow Him as He would lead you.
