

to find an explanation for it they can all agree on and not succeeding!

It is just an illustration of the fact that God's truth stands together, it works together. It is true, and dependable and every attempt to explain it or to explain the Bible on an unChristian basis falls into error. I fear I am going to have to stop . . . Dismissed.