

2/2/85

- 1 Seminary course builds in value each semester
Wilbur Smith's comment that when he was a young boy he attended one of the finest churches but they would never preach on the gospels--the earthly life of our Lord.
- 2 Salvation or service
Parable or allegory?
Brazilian preacher on the Good Samaritan
- 3 Whole of Scripture for people in all ages. Some truth not immediately apparent.
Passage in Mat. has great relevance for the saved but not for the unsaved
- 4 Time element between our being saved and the end of our life on earth
During this time God has a work for us to do
God's purpose is our development in two areas
- 5 Some have tremendous natural ability--charisma
Charles Woodbridge speaking on China
- 6 Two sisters in England. Bed-ridden. Prayed Moody would come to England
- 7 Manross's muffled speaking
Need to appraise our abilities and seek to improve them
- 8 Minister's wife who sang well but when a child her father had told her she couldn't sing and should keep quiet! Now her husband had encouraged her to learn to sing well.

1942 draft of students did not keep one in 1-A category from starting his seminary course and making progress in it until called to duty.
Made best use of his time and abilities.

Student (CTMc) who received high marks while in seminary but did not put time into his seminary work so is today not accomplishing much for the Lord's work directly.
