

the evil doers who does not trust Jehovah but does trust the large numbers of men power and against the evil helper who is not god but men. Thousands of Egyptians' horses are simply flesh and finite thing. They can't do any thing for Israel like the mighty hand of Jehovah <sup>did</sup> protect her in the past. Both the evil doers will fall by His almighty hand against which no nation can stand.

Therefore Jehovah will come down to protect for Israel on the mount Zion as a birds hovers on his young one and to fight against Assyria as lion and young lion growling over his prey. So Assyria will completely destroyed by sword and men. The Lord finally deliver Jerusalem from her false helper and cast down the false helper entirely. Then the people of Jerusalem might realize that He is the true and only the Helper and even mighty One. So they may return to Him as their corner stone of their warfare.

32: The first eight verse are the blessing which follows the warning of 31: according to the general tendency of Isaiah(Dr. MacRae). At the beginning of this chapter the glorious and blessed prediction of the peaceful reign of Israel's king literally and of the Messianic reign figuratively. In this refuge, all class of people can trust, have peace, knowledge, riches and spiritual fountain. There is no end in His noble things. What a glorious king and His throne they are!

The prophet brings a warning to the indiferece women to whom it refers, ~~it~~ it is not quite clear according the context. He asks them to repent their sins and iniquities with lamentation. For their captal, cities, fields and whole land is going to be destroyed completely as a desperate wilderness which brings no crops for them, until the time of pouring out the Spirit upon them from heaven.

Then the work of righteousness will bring justice reign, wonderful fruit peace and quiet rest into the wilderness. His miracloous hand will lead His people, into the peaceful land and the victorious and perfect kingdom from which the blessed waters flowing down.