Many ~~Christians~~ have thought that God set the Christian Church apart to bring perfect peace and happiness to the entire world. Sad indeed has been the frustration of those who have felt this way. God never ordained His church to be His instruments in establishing ~~and~~ peace and universal happiness. The purpose of the Church is to carry the message of salvation, to reach those who are to be saved out of the present evil world through faith ~~in~~ in the Lord Jesus Christ. It is God's power that brings anyone into the church and He regenerates them by a marvelous, supernatural act of the Holy ~~Spir~~ Spirit. It is God's power in the world that is going in the end at the return of Christ to put an end to all wickedness and set up His kingdom of universal peace and justice. It is the zeal of the Lord of Hosts that will perform this.

On Christmas day we do not remember any great act that man has done. We remember the act that God did, that which the ~~zeal~~ zeal of the Lord of Hosts performed in sending the Son of God into ~~the~~ this world to become a perfect man to carry out our redemption. Our salvation is all of God. Our hope is all of God. On Christmas we celebrate the marvel of the ~~come~~ coming of the Prince of Peace.

The ~~ix~~ INdependent Board for Presbyterian Foreign Missions is dedicated to the carrying of the message of salvation to ~~the~~ through Christ to the ends of the world. It is also ~~dedi~~ dedicated to opening the eyes of people in American and throughout the world to the evilness of the ecumenical ~~more~~ movement which is
