

2-14 1/2 ?
that is published in Dublin on the Invincible Movement upon Cavendish and Burke were murdered. He told the story of a policeman who was shot and is in what ~~was~~ now called O'Connell Street; it was then called Frankfurt Street.
And the reporter in perfect ~~innocency~~ innocence said, "The assassin made his escape by Mary Street, a street running north--Frankfurt Street or O'Connell Street.
When to his astonishment he was served 2-15 " Now, of course you may think that the ground of the ~~assassin was first~~ report of the assassin was but there was no name.
