Quiller-Couch, Sir Arthur Thomas (1863-1944).

Knighted in 1910 and in 1912 appointed King Edward VII Professor of English Literatureat Cambridge and also elected a fellow of Jesus College. One of the most versatile and prolific writers of his time. His chief contribution to letters was his clear and apparently effortless style. (Encyclopedia Britannica)

gradus jagan derra jareka aran aran dari dari

STALL TO BE MODE TO A DELLE SOFT AND THE STATE OF THE ST

Magair and a second of the sec and the first that the second of the second

The state of the s in the second of the second of the first graph of the compare of the compare

The state of the s ing grower Lynghanga at the attack of the growing the indicate and the second of the contract of the ٠.: