

indicates that the JEDP ~~Multi~~documentary <sup>hypothesis</sup> Theory will not stand up to a critical examination. Although the essays have not attempted to make a thorough case for another <sup>hypothesis</sup> ~~theory~~ to explain the literary phenomena of the Pentateuch, the implication is that the best working hypothesis is unified authorship. The reader is again requested to let the facts speak for themselves; the evidence which has been marshalled by the essays shows that the JEDP ~~Multi~~documentary <sup>hypothesis</sup> Theory should be totally rejected.

~~Platt~~

~~Fisher~~