

~~God all through the~~ , Elohim all through the first chapter and then used the name Yahweh for the rest? Dr. M. I think that the answer can be suggested in the first place by looking at ^a the further fact. ^{2 to} ~~In chapter/through the~~ 4. ^{In} It is true that in chapter two and three ^{and} it is true that we have Yahweh Elohim so many times. ~~We have in~~ chapter 4 we have ^{done} Yahweh ^{still} so many times. However, there ^{are} three ~~times, three instances there~~ , four instances where Elohim is used right in chapter 3. It is used in verses so and so and so and so.

Henry C. Yes, I noticed that I asked my roommate ^{that} about it and he asked/Professor, ^{the} the man/^{who} was teaching in his class. ^{that that is because} The man said, the serpent ^{is} speaking. ~~Hex said~~ said, you would hardly expect the serpent to use the sacred name of God? You would hardly expect the writer to use the sacred name of God in the mouth of the serpent. Therefore, he would simply use the general term God, and when you represent ~~E~~ as answering the serpent, he represents her as the same thing. Dr. M. Once we ~~we~~ admit that we admit that there is ^{denie} difference in ^{meaning between} the... ~~Don't we admit that there is a different meaning~~ ^{ce it in} ~~between~~ these two terms? We do not always call someone by ~~saying the~~ the same name. If ~~I am speaking~~ about , If I am addressing a public gathering and speaking about a friend of mine who became a United States senator, I would always say, Senator Martin has done this, Senator Martin has done that and so on. However, if I am speaking to a group of close friends who ^{knew} ~~know~~ him as a boy as I did, I would refer to him as Bob, ~~then if I am talking about him~~ ^{These in one connection I would} speaking to my friends I might call him Senator Martin, in ^{another} ~~certain~~ connection ^{I would call him} and Bob in certain connections. Thus I might use one name quite a while and the other quite a while or I might use them interchangeably. Henry C. I noticed that in our school paper that when ~~he writes about~~ ~~it~~ it writes about sports- events
