

service to the community by calling attention to the harm which may result from Dr. Jones' meetings. Let us hope that civic-minded groups of Wilmington will join their protest against un-American teachings.'