

The end is not yet

When ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars Mt.24.6; Mk.13.7

Many deceivers claiming to be Christ Mt. 24.4-5
Mk. 13.5-6

Such things must needs be, Mk.13.7

These things must first come to pass, but the end is not at once, Lk. 21.9

These are the beginning of sorrows

Nation shall rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom

Famines and troubles

Pestilences

Earthquakes

Fearful sights and great signs from heaven (Lk.21.11)

Sufferings of believers prior to the time of the above
Luke 21.12f

Persecution
Imprisonment
Brought before kings and rulers
Irresistable testimony
Betrayed by relatives and friends
Some killed
Hated of all men for Christ's sake

* - * - *

Jerusalem to be compassed with armies
The people to be carried away captive into all nations Jerusalem to be trodden down by the Gentiles until . . .

Sufferings of believers related to the "beginning of sorrows"

Delivered up to be afflicted (Mt.)	Delivered up to councils (Mk.)
They shall kill you	Ye shall be beaten in the synagogues
Ye shall be hated of all nations	Brought before rulers and kings
Betrayals and hatred of one another	Betrayal, hatred, death
False prophets shall rise
Iniquity abound; love grow cold
Gospel of the kingdom preached	Gospel proclaimed among all nations

The Abomination of Desolation spoken of by Daniel (Mt. and Mk.)

To be regarded as a sign for those in Judea to flee into the mountains
Those on housetop not come down into the house
Those in field not return back to take clothes
Woe to those who are with child
Pray that flight be not in winter or on sabbath day
