

- Mat. 10:34 Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. For I have come to turn a man against his father, a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law--a man's enemies will be the members of his own household.
- Mat. 26:52 Put your sword back in its place, Jesus said to him, for all who draw the sword will die by the sword.
- John 18:11 Jesus commanded Peter, Put your sword away! Shall I not drink the cup the Father has given me?
- Lk. 22:36-38 He said to them, But now if you have a purse, take it, and also a bag; and if you don't have a sword, sell your cloak and buy one. It is written: And he was numbered with the transgressors, and I tell you that this must be fulfilled in me. Yes, what is written about me is reading its fulfillment. The disciples said, See, Lord, here are two swords. That is enough, he replied.
- Rom. 13:4 For he is God's servant to do you good. But if you do wrong, be afraid, for he does not bear the sword for nothing. He is God's servant, an agent of wrath to bring punishment on the wrongdoer.
- Lk. 14:31 Or suppose a king is about to go to war against another king. Will he not first sit down and consider whether he is able with ten thousand men to oppose the one coming against him with twenty thousand? If he is not able, he will send a delegation while the other is still a long way off and will ask for terms of peace.
- Mat. 12:29 Or again, how can anyone enter a strong man's house and carry off his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can rob his house.
- Lk. 11:21 When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own house, his possessions are safe. But when someone stronger attacks and overpowers him, he takes away the armour in which the man trusted and divides up the spoils.
