

top. In another section, chapters 35-50 name Yaweh appears but once, and the name Elohim is used ~~67-seven-~~ 57 times. Such usages does not seem to be accidental, and certain, y the names were not used interchangeably by the original authors." This is the statement^{for} which there is no foundation, if the original, ~~of the earlier document-~~ the earliest document was J, and he changed the very third chapter happens to be the name Jehovah and Elohim used interchangeably, then no one can possibly deny it. However, it is ~~interesting to see-~~ interesting to see that on page 35, he says, there are ~~many~~ those who say that Joseph's story is the most ~~perfect~~ ^{Old} perfect detail in all the ^{Old} New Testament, J presents it, ~~and we~~ with much detail. And then he proceeds to give a long list of passages which he says are from J, and all of them are between chapter 35 -50 where, he ~~says~~ says, on page 29, "The name Yaweh appears but once, and the name Elohim is used 57 times."
