

VIII Argument of Difference of Style

12.1 Style - importance of this argument.

Gunkel on Legends of Genesis

12.3 Similarity of styles of E and J; difficult to distinguish between them

Disagreement among critics over E and J portions

12.4 Views of Pfeiffer, Eissfeldt, et al. on J -- S and L.

12.6 Claim that Style of P is completely Different

12.62 Purpose in Writing affects selection of material and also style

12.7 Entire theory built on assumption of ability to distinguish styles

Wellek on Pater, Chaucer, Wordsworth, Goethe

Hyman on Dover Wilson

12.9 Possibility of sources not denied

Ability to distinguish simply non-existent

12.20 The REDACTOR

13. The BOOK of DEUTERONOMY

13.1 Critical arguments for late date

General abandonment of idea that it was written in 621 B.C.

14. Real Basis of Wellhausenism - The Theory of Development

14.02 Argument from Development

14.05 Development approach said to be generally abandoned today

14.30 ~~And~~ Priests and Levites

Priestly Tabernacle

14.5 Albright, Snaith, Smart, Wright, Stalker, Kaufmann