

It is wonderful to know that the millennium is absolutely sure to come. Jesus will establish it. The great question is, where will we be when it comes? Will you and I be among those who have not accepted Christ, those who are cast into outer darkness, who do not deserve to have any place in that wonderful Kingdom when it comes, or will we be among those who have accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as Saviour, and have been turned from darkness to light, in whom the Holy Spirit has begun His wonderful work of transforming us into the image of Christ? We do not know how soon our present opportunity will come to an end. Jesus said, "In such an hour as you think not, the Son of man cometh." He may suddenly return and take His own to Himself. It might even be while I am speaking to you. Let's make sure, each one of us, that we know what it is to believe in Christ, that we have accepted Him from the heart as our Sin-bearer, and been born again into His Kingdom. And oh! Christian friends, please pray for our young men at Faith Seminary. We have a large group of very fine consecrated young men here, preparing to go out and teach others the way of life. Pray that God will enable us to give them the best possible training so that they may faithfully present the message of Christ, which our world so needs today.
