

find that about  $1/\overset{7}{10}$  of the words in the telephone book are divisible by seven. It ~~workd~~ works the same way. (Q) I<sup>N</sup> the Dead Sea? They are constantly finding new scrolls and they are constantly trying to get money to supply the cash for making further investigations, and so anything they find that can be written up in a sensational way and give to the reporter and get an ~~art~~ article out of it, but when you find the material coming out a year or two later coming out in a ~~sh~~ scholarly publication, you ~~many~~ may find much that was interesting that never got any publicity when it came out, 9/10s of what did proves to ~~h~~ have been just a quick judgment, so I have gotten where I don't pay much attention to the newspaper articles but wait for the scholarly publications, so I'm afraid in this case I'm not able ~~to~~ to say. (Q): Do you know ~~any~~ of any recent efforts to produce a fundamental orthodox translation. Are there any groups working on that? Ans.: I don't know of any group now. A few years ago there were several groups and they all wanted to get ~~su~~ busy and really make a good translation. And I've been trying to show is that the King James ~~Verse~~ Version took a hundred years to make and I don't think there is any group that is capable of making a translation today near as good as the King James, but ~~to~~ I think if we encourage every effort of Bible believers, eventually we will have a number from which we can gather material and get something... (I was under the impression, I don't know where I heard, that ~~h~~ there was a group involving some of the ~~pros~~ professors from Wheaton that had been working on that--they had been working at ~~We~~Wheaton in connection with the development of new ~~vers~~ion.) About seven or eight years ago there was a very ~~deta~~ detailed plan worked out and a number of people were ~~wro~~ working on it, but that has been forgotten now. (What about the Scofield--wasn't there suppose to be a revision) The
