

in John 3:16, and expanded and enlarged ~~elsew-~~ elsewhere, but God has in the scripture given us the principles for all of our lives. He has given us the ~~answr-~~ answer to all the problems of life but it is not necessarily on the ... Man shuts God ~~out~~ of His mind. Man's mind is clouded with sin, and God has given us a revelation which is given to give that which man needs for all ages if they are to have ~~answ~~ answers to their problems, and so if your Christian life is to count for what it should, ~~if you want-~~ He wants you to be familiar with John 3:16 but also with the book of Malachi, and with the Book of Nahum, and with the book of Titus and with the Book of Hebrews, and with every part of this volume. He ~~wans~~ wants you to study it from cover to cover and to ~~form-~~ find the ~~principle~~ principals there that are vital in your life, because it is entirely the ~~x~~ revelation that God has given to show you the answer to your problem. Well, you say that revelation is a very complex thing, because rules have different areas, because no revelation is complete --the Bible is ~~compe-~~ complete in the ~~ses~~ sense that it gives us all that God knows we need for our lives. It is complete, and there are many, many things that aren't given in it that we don't need to know the answer to. I know of a church that almost split because half of them believed that Christ was crucified on Friday and half believed ~~he-~~ He was crucified on Wednesday, and the Bible ~~doesnt-~~ doesn't tell us ~~w~~ which, and God has something else that ... than disputing about whether Christ was ~~erifu-~~ crucified on Wed. or Friday, His revelation ~~was~~ is incomplete in the sense that here are many things that we may want to ~~at~~ know that He doesn't give us, but it is complete in that it gives us the things that He wants us to know and He wants us to ~~x~~
