

4. World Communism, unless soon checked by intelligent action on the part of the free nations, will eventually plunge the whole world into a time of misery such as never been experienced on so large a scale.

Only a person who is determined not to believe it, can possibly, doubt the purpose of the Soviet rulers to gain complete control of the entire world. Never pausing in their aggression, save when faced with superior power, they constantly and ruthlessly ^{have} pushed forward. One after another, by deceit, by fraud, or by outright aggression, they have taken the nations of eastern Europe and of northern Asia. They will make any sort of a compromise or a deal to gain their end. Once they have gained their point, pacts and promises mean absolutely nothing to them. They agreed at Potsdam that Germany should be administered as one unit, with each of the four powers administering its separate area and all cooperating in the overall government of the country. Yet, almost immediately, they put an Iron Curtain around eastern Germany, forced its citizens to hear a constant barrage of Communistic propaganda, and imprisoned, brutally tortured, or exiled to Siberia those who showed lack of interest in the Communistic ideology. Thousands of people were forced to work in the uranium mines, at great constant danger of their lives, to produce the material with which to overthrow the free world. ^{Espionage} Sabotage rings have been discovered in one after another of our free nations, and it would be foolhardy indeed to say that others are not still active.

There can be no doubt that the inexcusable aggression of North Korea into South Korea was under orders from the Kremlin. The long continued discussions at Panmunjom give evidence of the purpose of the Communists. Moving their forces from Korea, they immediately assailed Indo China. Nothing is safe from their attack.

News comes out from China of the constant propaganda that is being put into the minds of the young Chinese, to fill them with hatred against the free nations, and particularly against the United States. When a supply of nuclear weapons equal to our own or superior is laid up, there is nothing to stop their use of them, save the question as to whether they are certain to succeed. With nearly half a billion people
