

insight and clear expression he has expounded God's Word. For this Christians everywhere are his debtors. This little brochure forms a fitting sequel to his many other splendid writings. Its brief statement of the Bible evidences on the fact and nature of the millennium deserves a wide and careful reading. May it open the eyes of many to this large and important phase of the teaching of God's Word.

Allan A. MacRae
President, Faith Theological Seminary
Wilmington, Delaware