

turned aside from the Bible, and they would think of it as a myth all the way through, and needed to be informed that it ~~was~~ really is a very wonderful book.

This issue of Life is what ~~is~~ indeed convinces a person whether such a viewpoint that the Bible is such a wonderful book. However, Christians have always felt much more than this ~~about~~ the Bible. They thought not only that the Bible is a wonderful book. They felt that the Bible is the very Word of God. The position of this issue of Life ^{is} that the Bible is a very wonderful book but that it is simply a record of man's search after God. No recognition... there is little recognition anywhere in the ~~xxx~~ issue that God has actually spoken to man and that the Bible is the inspired Word of God giving His truth ~~to~~ in order that man may find eternal and learn how to make his life worthwhile.

In ~~the~~ first paragraph of the introduction we find it clearly expressed that the Bible is not the book that God has marvellously inspired, it denies the idea that God has taught His people what He wanted them to know through this Book which He led ~~great~~ His prophets and His apostles to write, but that instead it is simply a record of human ideas and attitudes. ...

in the ~~very~~ first paragraph of the Introduction it says that ~~that~~ about 1,000 B.C. the Hebrews ~~begin~~ began to record the ~~ancient~~ old stories and ~~the~~ added news ones and asserts ~~inserts~~ that in the course of copying the scrolls there were made many changes, some on purpose, some inadvertently.

Christians have always believed that Moses ~~is~~ wrote the first five books of the Old Testament a considerable times before 1000 B.C. and that the last four ~~of~~ five books ~~of the~~ included the things that Moses actually ~~is~~ saw with his own eyes were revelations which God had directly given to him.

It must be said that there is no evidence whatever that the Old Testament has ever in the course of copying changes introduced into it on purpose. It is true that there has been occasional typographical ... occasional
