

his character, not much good, ~~and~~ I thought there was something wrong with him, I recognized it all the time. Let us ~~draw~~ <sup>go to</sup> ~~high~~ <sup>to</sup> ~~unto~~ Him as ~~simple~~ sinful beings, ourselves and pray God to help us to bring him back and <sup>to</sup> help him. The power of the gross sin, the power of the sin that is <sup>to</sup> sin, everybody, but also the power of <sup>the</sup> minor sin. Do you think that <sup>there is</sup> anybody ~~has ever given~~ <sup>that who</sup> has ever ~~given~~ <sup>gave</sup> a great message for the Lord, who did not, as he finished the message, and someone came up to him and <sup>said</sup> ~~say~~ <sup>to say to him</sup> 'My, that was a wonderful message, feel <sup>a glow of self-</sup> ~~gross~~ satisfaction for an instance, <sup>and think,</sup> 'My, I am glad ~~that~~ he appreciated that. Oh, how the power of <sup>the</sup> sin of pride, the very sin that ~~led~~ Lucifer to fall, the very point at which Satan fell, it can show itself in anyone of us. We do not realize ~~that He is watching over us.~~ <sup>people are</sup> <sup>① unless we are</sup>
 (3) But we see it in <sup>the</sup> other fellow, <sup>we</sup> and say, oh, isn't he <sup>stubborn</sup> <sup>stuck up!</sup> Does <sup>not he</sup> ~~not~~ think he is somebody? You cannot expect me to work with him, can you? <sup>Look,</sup> How much he thinks <sup>he amounts to and</sup> how little attention he pays to my <sup>ideas</sup>.
 He may probably feel the same thing about you. And the fact ~~th~~ is that we all of us are subject to this tremendous power of sin, and we need to look to God more constantly to give us victory over it. The Roman Catholic Church has a very bad thing of requiring a man to confess to another <sup>man</sup> / who also has the same sinful feelings as you <sup>do</sup>. Let us go to the other extreme and lose the good that is in it, that requires that a person thinks <sup>through</sup> his life, and think of his recent deed <sup>and</sup> see what needs to be repented of.
 We should confess our sins to God, but let us confess them. Let us think through what we have done, and see where we have fallen, and learn to recognize sins in our ~~selves~~ as well as in others. Well, that is now the third point that I wanted to mention about the nature of the sin, its power and force is and its subtleness. Perhaps I have covered that pretty well under this
