

in but she knew that if she let them come in, they would just be killed off too, because in a change of a dynasty they just kill all the reigning family that was... all their relatives of a few thousands, and that was the ^{standard} practice of China. She tells all these things ^{in her book} and she does not seem to ever realize that we have standards in some of the areas quite different from the standards in China, but she states how superior the Chinese ethics is to the ethics of America. There is the ~~the~~ image of God in all humanity and the most depraved person has something you can appeal to in them, something of a longing after a better life. They may think nothing of murder. They may think nothing of human life, but they may be appalled at something being stolen, a lie being told, or ^{vice versa} but there are some principles of good and ~~wh-~~ with which everybody has ~~in~~ in them, because ~~the~~ something of the image of God remains. There is something to which we can appeal and should not let the present lead us to the realization that in God's sight what matters is, ~~not what you say,~~ -- Are ~~you~~ saved because you believe in Christ and God sees you, and ⁱⁿ not your wickedness and your filthiness and sees you in the person of Christ to die that you might live and are you on the road to salvation? to complete the salvation, as far as the power of ^{sin} ~~sin~~ is concerned. Completely saved now from the guilt of sin, steadily improving, going on ~~toward~~ toward that goal, and that He has and He has promised ~~that will~~ be reached by everyone who truly from the heart puts his faith in Christ. We cannot tell who has put their faith in Christ, ~~and~~ ^{and who} who ~~--- just~~ ^{repeated} just because they repeated a few words. Someone ~~g~~ has gone forward in a meeting and the Bible says the name of Jesus, only through this name can one be saved. Now, there are thousands of people who have never heard the name Jesus, but who have perhaps lived yes, you are or
