impressed to hear Dr. Holdcroft tell us about a woman in Korea who came to as far as he knows a place where the gospel was never preached before, and he presented the message and a woman came up to him and she said, I dreamed of it before, and she said, she had known this great truth. In some way God had revealed to her and she was ready to accept it and join it immediately.
Because she has known the truth all along. As a general pattern we can take it very definitely. We do not say words somewhat similar to what we say, and The chances are very very great that you are lost, and outside the pale, places. And but God does have true men of God in unexpected ways. Let us recognize the possibility the fact that we find it very definitely both in the Old and the New Testaments. But then third under this, the good still in the world. God-I say, God has ... The presence of good men in unexpected places. Look back the Middle Ages. There you will see some marvellous men, some who perhaps accepted some of the superstitions of the Roman Church without thinking, which were without realizing but whose eyes are on the Lord and read-- as you read their writings you can see how they loved Him and how they served Him, and how they gave their lives for Him. And our third one here is that these disappear in the time and ordinarily lead to little ~~traces~~ ^{ve} ^{traces}. We have infant-baptism instances after instances. Look at the Near East. Look at the great centers of the Christian testimony and Christian truth and look how Islam flooded over that land and few little groups of Christians here and there were all that remained through the centuries. Look at Egypt, one of the great centers of Christian teaching, everybody there was a nominal Christians for some centuries, and then Islams flooded over there and- that land and small groups of / of them are all that remains of the testimony of the ancient time. Look at the Far East. Dr. Holdcroft ^{was} gathered together the material on the
