God intervenes providentially power in all lives. If we put our eyes on Him, we can see His hand of providence, we can see His working. But God has intervened with His miraculous power in order to keep alive the witness make it a witness preserved thought to Himself, in order to preserve the witness even if man wanted to go against it and wanted to go the other way, He would grab him with ... ~~and~~ with neck .. put him back in. We cannot expect Him to do that with us. If we turn aside after sin and follow up this way, He may do it, but He may let us go into the direction in which we follow. ^{after sin.} As you look through the Old Testament you find in it God's determination, God who was the first great missionary who came down here to show man ^{where was} that he ~~is~~ in sin, and show man how he could be saved through the fact that the ^{head of the} serpent ^{would} ~~will~~ be bruised by the seed of the woman, and who made a ~~coat~~ cloak of sheep skin for them to illustrate the fact that the animals had to die that man might live, and that Jesus Christ would die in order that we might be saved ~~from~~ from sin. God ^{followed} with His miraculous power through the Old Testament and ^{that stages} in a crucial way He intervered and- with His almighty miraculous power. God called Abraham ~~out of the~~ Ur of Chaldees. ^{when} The whole world turned away from God and forgotten ~~God~~ Him and worshipped the ~~id~~ idols and worshipped the imagination of man. God called Abraham out there and brought Him into the land of Palestine. Now, there is not much ~~when~~ which is called miraculous /in the life of Abraham.
There are many ^{wonderful} ^{actions} ^{led} providential /acts of God, but God /very definitely ~~led~~ in the life of Abraham. ~~Abraham~~ Abraham was one whose ^w eyes were
