During the early part of the present century the world of Biblical scholarship had to a very great extent been taken over by these unbelieving scholars. There was at that time hardly any school where one could take advanced work in ~~Biblical~~ Biblical studies without having to study under unbelieving scholars. The Christian world The world of true believers as a whole was made up of individuals whose interest was primarily in the practical work of the ministry . During the past fifty years a very considerable number of bright young men, have gone into with a thoroughly Christian background, have gone into Biblical scholarship. Some of these have been overwhelmed by the teaching of the modernists, and have adopted given up their earlier belief in the great central doctrines of Chnty°. However, there is a sizable number who, though trained under unbelievers, have maintained a solid belief in the essentials of the Chn° faith. Yet most of these have been influenced by unbelieving+ interpretations of various passages presented to them in the guise of pure scholarship without (?)

Consequently/<sup>in</sup>most translations made in the past fifty years these (?) such attitudes occasionally come to the fore.
