

So as to win those not having the law. To the weak I became weak. I have become all things to all men so that by every possible means I might save some. I do all this for the sake of the Gospel, that I may share in its blessing. So run, ~~if~~ that you may obtain it

This is a message to preachers. A man said to me some years ago when I was a child. A fine Christian man. He said, I know a man who is no good as a preacher but he said he is great visitor. He goes about and calls on people and people feel as though they have got to return his call. So they come to church, and he brings great numbers of people to church because he calls on them. There is nothing like personal work. There is nothing like saying, Thou art the man. This is God's message to you! There are many aspects of the Lord's work but I don't want to have people coming to hear me simply because they feel they have got to show friendship (?) to me. The Lord has called us to be preachers and he has called us to preach in such a way that they will want to hear us preach and everybody continue(?)

I had a friend in seminary who had a natural attractiveness to him. He would stand up in church and raise his arms and people would get _____ down. Isn't it beautiful! It was like _____ who when he said that blessed word Mesopotamia it was so wonderful and people were so thrilled! But most of us don't have that gift. But every one can learn to preach effectively and there is no excuse for not doing so. We may not become great orators. We may not become speakers,
