

regular crowd. He said, When is my special car coming? You promised me a special car. Well, he said, that was a few minutes ago. He said, I'm not giving you anything special. He said this man has been rough and causing trouble all the time, he simply was as nice as could be from that point on.

There are some people whom we don't want to use us for a doormat, and they will respect us for it more. God wants us to continue the particular situation, but he wants us to be all things to all men that we may by all means win some. The question isn't whether you are a doormat. The question isn't whether you get the honor you deserve as we all know we all deserve lots of honors. The question isn't whether you get it in this life. God will give you the honors you deserve. It doesn't matter whether you get it in this life or not. The question is are you bringing all things into subjection to the mind of Christ, and are you studying how you can be approved unto God because you are not running as one who beats the air, but you are running in such a way that if your running is the only thing that decides it, you will win the prize. Only one gets the prize. You may not be that one but its a matter you have no concern(control) over. But we are to trust God and do good He's called us to do good which means to be good and also means to act in such a way as to achieve results. Paul says, I bring my body under, I beat it and make it my slave so that after I've preached to others I myself will not be disqualified for the prize. We come back to the beginning of the verse: Trust in the Lord & do good.

What is your purpose in preaching. When I was a student
