

This is one of the illustrations that I give in my message at the Christian Admiral. I hope that you may find it of some use in your witness for Christ. If you should think of any further specific problems or matters on which I could be of help, please write me.

Cordially yours in Him,