

Dr. Carl McIntire

- 3 -

April 6, 1971

It would impress me as far better than taking a premature stand on a matter that is under consideration by those whose duty it is to investigate it full, to place emphasis on the great work done by J. Edgar Hoover to preserve our liberties, and on the importance of maintaining the strength of our inner defenses against communists.

As ever,