

of gifts & penalties in this world. There must be justice in the after life which takes care of this, there must also be a God as a righteous God who rights the wrong.

V Ontological Argument

Augustine, Anselm, Descartes, Hegel, James Orr

- Idea in mind of man is the existence of the thing. This applies only to one thing & "that than which the greater cannot be conceived."

- Even God has idea of something which can be conceived
- "Dueler" can't exist in mind alone. →
