it won't matter much to me whether you've been all ready . Of course if I was living a poor life and when I saw these signs, began to live for the Lord, somebody would at all.

But this moment would have a relevance, that I know that when once he should call me, when once I saw that car coming, that then I coudn't go all of a sudden and get ready even though I did see because there wouldn't be but the thing to do would be to live a life would be to live that way all the time.

R 6 Student-- anything about

The only sign that I know/that we will know anything-about when the seventieth week of Daniel begins we must know that we are going to run into trouble with the Jews, and as far as I can see that is the only way that we will know Christ is on the, scene, it's the real thing and that the tribulation is on its way. For seven years we go on into Daniel's seventh week, or that Christ is going to come in seven years or two and a half years, I'm still not too sure, but I don't think it is going to be at the beginning of the week, but the point is that if that covenant should be entered into secretly, weren't published all over the world, we wouldn't know that the seventieth week had begun. starting right in a covenant with the Jews right now, and, this is hypothetical of course, we might be near the time.) Dr. MacRae again--Maybe He did three and a half years ago. What about that? (Student--Maybe He did, but we haven't seen any . We haven't seen the trumpet yet. We haven't seen the three and a half years, I don't think so either, but the point is we can't be sure. Perhaps this is going to be the answer, but we can't be sure when the actual signs are coming which may down to the last two thousand years which have caused Christians to say.
