R   6

"This is getting near the end. We are suffering persecution.

and others. We are suffering persecution   rulers, Romanism, or whatever it is are there, and this may be it, though we can't be sure of it.

Maybe that's the explanation of it.")   Student--Well I think that we can draw a   . that we don't know at any time the time that Christ return. We don't know when He is coming, the day nor the hour.

On Mr. Horner's view, I think we wouldn't know the exact hour but as soon as we see these signs we'd know the day and know it is about--that He would come pretty soon, and therefore I think this is   of the Scriptures)

Student--   Luke 24, is it, or 25, something like that--28. The Lord Jesus Christ specifically, "When you see these things come to pass, then lift up your eyes for your redemption draweth nigh." "When you see the fig tree, and all the trees," He said, not just the fig tree--and all the trees, and when you see them come into blossom you know that summer is nigh, and so likewise when you see all these things, then lift up your eyes for you know that summer time is coming, and redemption.

Dr. MacRae--That passage, by the way, Mr. Horner has just read from v. 31 of chapter 21 of Luke, and then in v. 34 it says, take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. Watch you, therefore, and pray always.   When are you supposed to begin to watch--after these signs, or after His--when? Student--Well, you would be watching, you would certainly understand until the signs took place, until the fig tree blossomed,

He wouldn't come. (Another student) Student--That's right. That's part of the watching. Dr. MacRae--Well, that's not what this watching means. It doesn't mean looking for signs. It means Christian living. It's "   "

Now in connection with that let me just say one more wordthat when somebody sayd to me, "I'll be along for you some time this afternoon. You be ready when I come," I may get dressed up in the morning and wait for him, but if
