

Isaiah 3

a rejoicing, the people a joy, there is going to be great blessing ahead for God's people and in Chapter 66 I think you again have the two elements of the prayer in mind. You again have the aspect of God's turning His wrath upon those who are claiming His mercy only by virtue of the fact that they are Abraham's seed. God turns His wrath upon those who deserve it but

Isaiah 4

(Student) Well, then how does he go on?

Yes, it could be, but the next verse has

and you have the two aspects

Now, of course, a suggestion like made. Here's denunciation here, a wonderful unrelated. Here/answer the prayer of the last half, the first half is just more or less unrelated. but it doesn't seem a very well organized arrangement.

and he says the first half is dealing with the wrong attitude of part of the people but he says the godly part, which is the small part, receives the blessing of the Lord. Well, of course there is a lot of truth in that, but I think he is wrong in saying that you jump ahead for the answer. I think the whole thing is wrong. Well, let's look into it and study it and we'll have two hours, from four to six on Friday and at that time we'll look at these two chapters and see what we can gather from the two chapters. Now please prepare the two rather carefully for Friday.

Isaiah 4 (Friday - January 7, 1949)

This is our last meeting of this semester's course. We have two hours now together. I wish we had two or three hours that we have missed from this class. I think it is the only course this semester that I have missed any class from except when it was due to the Day of Prayer or Thanksgiving Day
