

Isaiah 11

temple is it? I think it is a waste of time, all the pages that have been written on it. I think it is a voice from God's presence, a voice from God's abode, a voice of the Lord that renders recompence to His enemies. God is going to straighten everything up. God is going to bring justice and peace upon the earth. A voice of the Lord that renders recompence to His enemies. And what is going to happen at that time when God brings recompence to His enemies? Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child. Who ever heard of such a thing! Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? Or shall a nation be born at once? But (" " can be "but" or "for". Either one fits perfectly here. As soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. Shall I bring to the birth and not cause to bring forth, saith the Lord? God says, when He brings destruction to adversaries, when He comes with wonderful power to set up righteousness in this earth, He will cause that a nation will be born at once. As soon as Zion travails she will bring forth her children. There will be a sudden bringing of Israel into the kingdom, a nation born in a day. As Paul also points out in Romans, that the Redeemer will come to Zion and so all Israel shall be saved. The day is coming when the natural branches will again be grafted in to their own olive tree. And then he continues, "Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all ye that love her. Rejoice for joy with her that ye may suck and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations, that ye may milk out and be delighted with the abundance of her glory. For thus saith the Lord, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations--the Gentiles--like a flowing stream. As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you, and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem. They will look back ^{on} ~~and~~ all the sorrow and misery of the ages when they were cast aside and will be the nation born in a day being comforted by the Lord in Jerusalem. And when ye shall see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb; and the hand of the Lord shall be known toward His servants, and His indignation toward His enemies. For, behold, the
